IMPORTANT: POLARIS UPGRADE ON WEDNESDAY

A Polaris upgrade from 5.0 to 5.1 is scheduled for this Wednesday June 8th, 2016. The upgrade will take the entire morning so do not plan on using Polaris or any of the services it supports (Polaris Staff Client in Online mode, PowerPAC, Leap, Authentication for Libdata, Envisionware, Overdrive, Zinio and hoopla).

Polaris Offline will be available as always if you would like to use it.

From the Director:

We are quickly approaching construction aid time for our member libraries. From my site visits and county-wide meetings with our libraries, I have heard both informally and formally that many of you are thinking of construction projects that range from insulation to renovations and expansions. This week you received an email from Kristi that asked you to let her know what your library’s project is, a rough estimate of how much you think your project will cost, and how much you will be applying for. We need this information by Monday, June 6th if at all possible. If you are thinking of a project and need help with estimates or ideas, please feel free to contact Kristi and me and we would be happy to talk to you or visit your library. While we know that this is going to be a competitive year for funding your requests, our goal is to fund as many projects as possible.

Reminders:

Floating Collections
Are your shelves starting to bare all for the summer? Do you want to try some new stuff and make a display? Don't forget, we can float collections right to your shelves with no cost to your library! Only pay for what is lost or damaged (and even then we can try and work something out!) Current collections we can float your way include:

- Graphic Novels (Adult, YA and Juv, Nonfiction and Fiction!)
- Videogames (Wii, Wii U, Xbox360, XBOXOne, PS3, PS4, DS & 3DS)
- Books on CD
- Books on Playaway Devices
- LaunchPads
- DVDs and BluRays

Interested? Email Malia (malia@flls.org) or Amanda (aschiavulli@flls.org) with what collection(s) you would like and how many of each type.

Construction Grants
If you are planning on applying for a construction Grant this coming grant cycle, please contact Kristi with details of your proposed project and the estimated amount at kdownham@flls.org.

Allow Libraries to Prevent Opioid Deaths - Contact Your Elected Officials Today

NYS Libraries Need Your Support!

The opioid abuse epidemic has reached into the heart of every community in our state, so it comes as no surprise that libraries and library staff are reporting increased incidents of opioid use, abuse, and even overdose in our community and neighborhood libraries. NYLA responded to our members’ reports by drafting legislation to address incidences of opioid overdose in libraries. This legislation, S.7860/A.10364, will permit public libraries and their staff the option to receive training and administer antidotes, such as Narcan, when individuals suffer from opioid overdose in the library.

We need our supporters to take action to ensure that our friends in the legislature fight to get this legislation passed. We must [SPEAK UP NOW!](mailto:SPEAK UP NOW!)

Use our pre-drafted letter to voice your support for S.7860/A.10364. After you submit your name and address you will have the opportunity to view and EDIT our pre-drafted letter. Our system determines your elected representatives based on your address, and submits your message directly to their inbox. In addition to your Senator and Assemblymember, your message will be delivered to a select number of key leaders.

[Click HERE to send your message TODAY!](mailto:Click HERE to send your message TODAY!)

Every message counts, please help spread the word and share this call to action. Together we can get this legislation passed!

Improving Communication in Libraries Through Better Visual Design Webinar

Friday, July 22
10am-11am
Fee: $10

Every time a librarian crafts an event poster, develops signage, creates instructional handouts, or drafts web advertisements, a design decision is made. The question is whether these are thoughtful decisions crafted to enhance communication or unintentional decisions that may interfere with a library’s intended message. Attendees will learn essential graphic design principles that can be applied to visual materials in any medium and learn to apply intentional thinking throughout the creative process.

Teen Video Challenge Wrap-up

The New York State Library is pleased to announce that the winner of the 2016 Teen Video Challenge for New York State is “Catch a Book.” This video was created and performed by brothers Brian and Simon Wulf, and submitted by the Newstead Public Library in Akron, New York. Brian and Simon receive a cash prize from CSLP and the Newstead Public Library receives a gift certificate from Upstart.

The New York State winning and finalist videos are featured on the Summer Reading at New York Libraries website at http://www.summerreadingnys.org/teens/teen-video-challenge-winners-2016/ Winners from all participating states were announced on April 28, 2016 during the CSLP Annual Meeting held in Salt Lake City, Utah. To see all 26 winning state videos, visit the 2016 Teen Video Challenge page at http://www.summerreadingnys.org/teens/teen-video-challenge-winners-2016/ and scroll down to the link for “Winners from All States.” All winning videos can be used by teens and public libraries to promote summer reading throughout New York State and nationwide.

The New York State Library congratulates all winners and finalists in the 2016 Teen Video Challenge and looks forward to more teens and libraries participating next year. Please visit the Summer Reading at New York Libraries website www.summerreadingnys.org regularly for updates and resources, and have a fun summer of reading and learning!
Storytime Rhyme of the Week

A Fly Went Into a Grocery Store

A fly went into a grocery store
Alone, teehee all alone.
He'd never been in a store before
Alone, teehee all alone.
He went to the meat,
Put his foot in a ham
And stuck out his tongue (stick out tongue)
At the grocery man.
A fly went into the grocery store
Alone teehee all alone.

YA Book of the Week:

Rapture Practice: A True Story About Growing Up Gay in an Evangelical Family by Aaron Hartzler

From School Library Journal
Gr 9 Up-Hartzler grew up in an Evangelical Christian home, where he was taught that the Rapture might happen any minute. As he grew into his teen years, he began to question this belief and to be drawn to more worldly things-movies, rock music, plays, literature, and kissing. To a secular audience, Hartzler’s parents’ rules about whom he can befriend and how he can live his life may come across as draconian, but the author is open and fair about how they lived their beliefs and how they always loved him, even as their rules drove him away. Hartzler is honest about his sexual encounters with girls (and boys) and about underage drinking that happened at parties he attended. His memoir is appealing because of his honesty, and forthrightness. When writing about Evangelical Christians, he never takes on a condescending tone. He shows where his own questions led him, even as he shows how his parents saw things very differently than he did. His style is clear and lively, and he makes readers see how the questioning of his faith began, and how it grew. Readers will want to spend time with Hartzler to find out how he became true to himself and what choices he made on that journey.-Geri Diorio, Ridgefield Library, CTα(c) Copyright 2013.

Library of Congress and Mid-Atlantic Public Libraries Kick Off Summer Essay Contest
Rising 5th and 6th Graders Asked to Write About “A Book That Shaped Me”
The Library of Congress today launched its annual summer essay contest, in conjunction with public libraries in the Mid-Atlantic region, to encourage rising 5th- and 6th-grade students to reflect on books that have made a personal impact on their lives. The "A Book That Shaped Me" Summer Writing Contest is administered as part of summer reading programs at participating public libraries in Washington, D.C.; Maryland; Virginia; Delaware; Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Prizes will be awarded and top winners will be invited to present their essays during a special presentation at the 16th Library of Congress National Book Festival, Saturday, Sept. 24 at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center in Washington, D.C. Students entering 5th and 6th grades in the fall of 2016 are eligible. Essays, focused on a single book, should be one page in length and must be submitted with an entry form, in person, at participating public library locations. The deadline for entries is Friday, July 18, 2016.

Assigning a Different Loan Period:

Sometimes you may have to assign a loan period that is different from the standard loan period for a specific item. It may be an Out-of-System ILL item, or the patron may want to extend the standard loan period. This should be done BEFORE you check out the item.

REMINDER: Please remember that in order to renew an ILL, you must contact ill@flls.org 3 days before the due date!!

1. Scan the patron’s card at Check Out (F3).

2. Click on the Special... button in the Check Out window.

3. Select the due date either using the calendar on the left or typing in the number of days on the right. Then select the option to: apply to next item only (ILL), apply to all items for this patron or apply to all checkouts. Then click OK.

4. Scan your item (for an ILL it will be located on the goldenrod book band) and finish checking out.

Question of the Week

LAST WEEK’S QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

What year was Memorial Day first widely observed? Was it always called Memorial Day?

The U.S. holiday Memorial Day, originally known as Decoration Day, is a day of remembrance for those who have died in the nation's service. The holiday was first widely observed on May 30, 1868, when flowers were placed on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers. Many states in the South, however, did not recognize Memorial Day until after World War I, and many still maintained a separate Confederate Memorial Day. The name Memorial Day came into use in the 1880s but did not become official until an act of Congress in 1967. It is now celebrated in almost every state on the last Monday in May. Veterans Day, the other U.S. holiday honoring the military, commemorates all those who served in America's wars.
