From the Director:

The New York State Library requires us to complete a new five-year Plan of Service by October 1st. This is the perfect opportunity to hear from you what we are doing right, and where we need improvement. It is also a chance to hear from our member libraries about new services you would like to see FLLS provide.

Over the next two months, FLLS will be conducting five focus groups for each of the five counties we serve. Our first focus group takes place next Tuesday, July 12th in Ovid for the Seneca County libraries. During the course of the focus groups, we will be asking questions such as: How do you feel most engaged to FLLS? How can FLLS enhance collaboration? What would member libraries see and experience in a transformed FLLS? In addition to in-person focus groups, I will also be sending out a survey in the next few weeks for library staff and trustees who would like to share their opinions. I look forward to hearing from you and planning for our future.

Sarah

Reminders:

Beware of Copyright This Summer!

Remember, the word Olympics is under copyright! Before you advertise your summer programs, double check <http://www.teamusa.org/Brand-Usage-Guidelines> to make sure you are not violating their copyright! As Amanda mentioned earlier this summer, there was an error in this year's Summer Reading Manual. More information is here: : <http://shopcslp.com/cslp/pages/webinars>.

Construction Grant Portal Now Open

The Construction Grant Portal is now open! All applications are due by August 31st. If you are planning on applying you must have a site visit conducted by Kristi Downham. Appointments are being booked the week of July 11. Email kdownham@flls.org or 607-273-4074 ext. 228 to make an appointment.

2013-2016 Family Literacy Grant Survey Open

Just a reminder Amanda needs your data for your 3DS and all the other activities from the 2013-2016 Family Literacy Grant! The link to the survey is here: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/LKK859M> She needs this filled out by EVERY LIBRARY no later than the end of the day on Tuesday, July 12th. Please email Amanda at aschiavulli@flls.org with any questions.

System Updates

New to the Professional Collection:

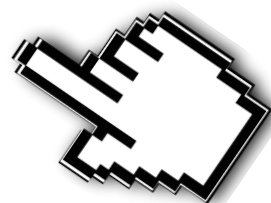

Copyright : interpreting the law for libraries, archives and information services by Graham Cornish

Barcode: A20519091338

Cornish's Copyright is the standard work in its field and is indispensable for all librarians and information professionals and who are looking for solutions to their copyright problems. The book explains the provisions of the UK Copyright Act and supporting legislation in quick and easy question-and-answer form. This latest edition is revised and expanded in the light of new legislation which came into force in 2014/5 and some decisions by the courts which have changed our understanding of what the law means. Areas such as moral rights, originality, databases, and the use of broadcast material in education all receive detailed attention, along with Wikipedia, Creative Commons and Open Archives. Copyright is also considered in the context of social media. All types of material that may attract copyright are considered, including: * literary, dramatic and musical works * artistic works * sound recordings * films and video * broadcast * databases * computer programs and websites. The text is amplified by the use of practical examples to illustrate complex points and complemented by a detailed index that enables the enquirer to pinpoint topics and proposed action quickly and accurately. The appendices provide helpful lists of addresses and selected further sources of information. Readership: This book will be invaluable for all librarians, information professionals and students who are looking for solutions to their copyright problems.

Storytime Rhyme of the Week

My Big Blue Boat

I love to row in my big blue boat,
My big blue boat, my big blue boat
I love to row in my big blue boat
Out on the deep blue sea
My big blue boat has two red sails
(wave arms over head like sails)
Two red sails, two red sails
My big blue boat has two red sails
Out on the deep blue sea
So come for a row in my big blue boat
My big blue boat, my big blue boat
So come for a row in a big blue boat
Out on the deep blue sea

YA Book of the Week:

Samurai rising: The Epic Life of Minamoto Yoshitsune* by Pamela Turner

From School Library Journal

Gr 7 Up—Minamoto no Yoshitsune, the 12th-century Heian hero who defeated the rival Taira clan only to be undone by another member of the Minamoto group, is a samurai legend. His rise from obscurity, reckless brilliance in battle, and gruesome end (which helped establish seppuku as part of the warrior code) are irresistible features of a life that ended at age 30. A near-contemporary chronicle, Heike monogatari, and a nemesis's history, Azuma kagami, reporting Yoshitsune's deeds were too thin for the popular imagination, which immediately began embroidering on the sources. Turner unpicks some of the yarn but brightens the colors of what remains so that Yoshitsune, physically a small man, leaps from the pages, larger than life and twice as active. Everyone dies—violently—but the famous ends of Atsumori, Antoku, Kiyomori, and others are moving rather than grim. The text rips along, skillfully engaging teens in many swift turns of events. Historical and cultural references are impressively accurate, and Hinds's fluid brush-and-ink drawings and battle maps add useful detail. Although Turner often uses the word probably, the compelling narrative never strains credulity, and expert tricks help readers navigate Japanese names and sort out relationships. Students will find the 60 pages of endnotes equally fascinating and lively; a seven-page bibliography attests to the serious research behind the vivid (but never simplistic) writing. VERDICT Japanophiles, action lovers, and future historians will all find this book gripping. —Patricia D. Lothrop, St. George's School, Newport, RI

Question of the Week

LAST WEEK'S QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

Is there a 4th of July in England?

Yes, there's a 4th of July in every country. Of course they don't treat it as a holiday as citizens of the United States do, but that's not what was asked.

From: <https://riddlesbrainteasers.com/fourth-july-england/>

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

This finance oriented daily newspaper was founded on July 8, 1889 and published by Dow Jones and Company and is still running today. What is the name of the newspaper?
