Conferences, Conferences CONFERNCES!

Sarah has been busy in Fargo this week ready to bring back some great information from the Association for Rural and Small Libraries Annual Conference (ARSL). We hope you have been checking social media for coverage of the conference! Check the hashtag #ARSL2016.

Next week, Sarah, Amanda and Jenny will all be at the NYLA Annual Conference in Saratoga Springs. There will not be a Weekly Bulletin. Please reach out to them if you are attending so we can all meet up! Be sure to check their hashtag #NYLA2016 for coverage.

The November 11th Bulletin will include conference coverage from ARSL and NYLA. Have a great first two weeks of November!

Reminders:

Overdrive Website Changes

Be sure to check out the new Overdrive website before it goes completely live in November.

Videos are here: <https://cc.readytalk.com/cc/playback/Playback.do?id=acb1kh>

Be sure to let Amanda know if you have any questions!

Zinio Name Change

On December 5, 2016, Recorded Books will be changing the name of Zinio for Libraries to RBdigital and launching a newly enhanced RBdigital mobile app. The following was sent in an email last week:

- The new RBdigital app will combine our Zinio for Libraries magazine app with our OneClickdigital eBook/audiobook app, so access to audiobooks, magazines, and eBooks will all be in one app.
- The new RBdigital app for patrons will feature a newly improved navigation and native search.
- Access to the Zinio for Libraries app will end on February 1, 2017, and access to magazines will only be available on the RBdigital app.
- Patrons will be notified directly through their current Zinio for Libraries app to download the new RBdigital app.

YA Book of the Week:

Witness: Passing the Torch of Holocaust Memory to New Generations by Eli Rubenstein

From School Library Journal

Gr 6 Up—With many extant works on the Holocaust, this book stands out for its firsthand accounts from survivors. As the subtitle indicates, this work attempts to connect Holocaust eyewitnesses with young people who are long-removed in time and place from the Shoah. Rubenstein's volume commemorates the 25-plus years of the March of the Living, a program that brings secondary students to Poland to visit Holocaust-related sites. Students march from Auschwitz to Birkenau on Holocaust Remembrance Day to honor the memory of Holocaust victims. Rubenstein has compiled moving comments from survivors and victims, March participants, and notables (Pope Francis, President Obama). The text and captions are generally clear (with some exceptions) and include prose and poem responses from the young marchers. The many photographs (both archival and contemporary) are compelling: individual faces help make the ungraspable numbers personal. Some may find that the oblong format makes holding this heavy volume awkward. Important topics—responsibility, resistance, prejudice (including quotas for refugees), and the basic goodness, or not, of humans—are raised. VERDICT Recommended for most libraries.—Patricia D. Lothrop, St. George's School, Newport, RI

YALSA Summer Learning Grants

Deadline: January 1, 2017

Awards of $1,000 to each of 20 libraries in need with the purpose of helping them purchase resources to bolster their teen summer reading program.

Question of the Week

LAST WEEK'S QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

In what year did a technicality in a presidential election lead to the Twelfth Amendment to the Constitution? Bonus: Who was the tie between?

1800: Due to a technicality, the election of 1800 resulted in a tie between Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr, Jefferson's vice presidential running mate. After several months, the U.S. House of Representatives certified Jefferson as the winner, but the confusion prompted a clarification of voting procedures, which resulted in the Twelfth Amendment to the Constitution. From: Go.grolier.com Feature: Close U.S Presidential Elections. TM & © 2016 Scholastic Inc. All Rights Reserved. Accessed 10/21/16

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

What database would you use to access practice tests for Citizenship in the United States? What is the first question on the test?

To answer a Question of the Week, please email Amanda (aschiavulli@fls.org) with "Question of the Week" in the Subject. Please include your source. Prizes are available for correct answers using one of our databases or a credible source
