From the Director

During the FALCONS meeting on Thursday, our member libraries unanimously voted to approve a common card for our system. Thank you to the directors who have been working on the common card committee over the past year. It is the hope of both the committee and Finger Lakes to have a common card implemented on June 1st of this year. Over the next couple of months we will be working behind the scenes to make sure everything goes smoothly and that everything is in place by June 1st. The common card committee will be meeting again shortly and would love for more members to join and offer their suggestions or help. If you are interested in joining the common card committee, please contact Lisa Carr of the Seymour Library. She can be reached at lcarr@seymourlib.org or 315-252-2571 ext. *14.

New ILL email

In order to make sure that none of your email correspondence about out-of-system ILLs falls through the cracks while Linda prepares for and after her retirement on 03/04/2016, Rex created the ill@flls.org email account that will go to all of the ILL staff [Deb Geier, Sam Norton, and Linda]. Please use ill@flls.org to request renewals for, ask questions relating to, and report problems about out-of-system ILLs.

Website Hosting Proposal & Pricing Information

At the February FALCONS meeting we discussed the FLLS proposal to host member library websites. The proposal has been posted to our website. We have also added pricing information and details on two-stage implementation plan. Both documents are in PDF format and can be found at the following links:

Check out the Internet: Starting a Hotspot Lending Program

Thursday, June 16, 2016

9:30am-11:30am

Ask and you shall receive! We are bringing CLRC's "Check Out the Internet: Starting a Hotspot Lending Program" Training Session to Ithaca!

- Does your library have a parking lot full of patrons using wifi after hours?
- Are you interested in having a hotspot lending program in your library?
- Wondering how it all works and (gulp) how much it might cost?

Join Central New York Library Resources Council (CLRC)'s Research & Development Librarian Matthew Kopel for a session reviewing all of the various ways that your library can get to the bleeding edge of access innovation. This workshop will walk you through the questions to ask vendors, and prepare you to have the answers ready for when your board is ready to fund a hotspot project.

Patron Driven Weeding

March 30, 2016

11am-Noon

Patron-driven acquisition has become a regular part of the collections development process in many libraries. If we can trust our patrons to provide valuable input on what types of materials belong in the library's collection, can we trust them to also provide opinions on what should no longer be on our shelves?

Storytime Rhyme of the Week

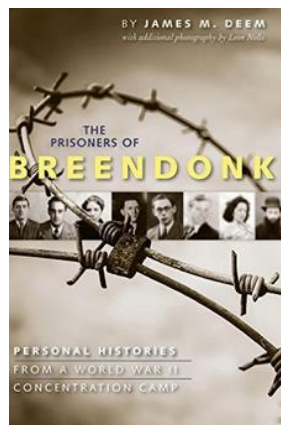

The Garden Song

Inch by inch, row by row
Gonna make this garden grow.
All it takes is a rake and a hoe
And a piece of fertile ground.

Inch by inch, row by row
Someone bless these seeds I sow.
Someone warm them from below
'Till the rain comes tumbling down.

YA Book of the Week:

The Prisoners of Breendonk: Personal Histories from a World War II Concentration Camp by James Deem

From School Library Journal

Gr 8 Up—This title sheds light on the Nazi prison camp Breendonk. Never designated as a concentration camp, Breendonk (an old fort intended to defend Antwerp, Belgium, in World War I) was referred to as a "reception" camp. Regardless of its title, Breendonk held about 3,600 prisoners between 1940 and 1945. Jews, communists, common criminals, and freedom fighters all found themselves subject to incarceration. Life in Breendonk was no different than that in any of the better-known camps. It served as a "feeder" to Mauthausen, Buchenwald, Sachsenhausen, and several other camps. This narrative is told through the lives of various prisoners who lived (and died) there. Liberally illustrated with black-and-white photographs of the camp, its officials, and the prisoners, the book is well written and well organized.

Many drawings done by one of the prisoners are also included, and captions add to the content. An afterword concludes the stories of some of the prisoners. VERDICT The overall quality of this volume makes this title about a little-known camp a strong choice.—Eldon Younce, Anthony Public Library, KS

Polaris Tip of the Week

Quick Bib Reminders!

- Never enter the initial articles a, an, or the into the Quick Bib title – this causes the title to be displayed in a browse search under the initial article instead of the first significant word.
- Filling out the 028 field (publisher number) in a Quick Bib, especially for audiobooks and music recordings, can be helpful in finding a bibliographic record for those items. For music CDs, the publisher number is often found on the spine of the case and on the disc surface as well. An example is “UAE 34732” for a music CD published by United Audio Entertainment (see below, left). For audiobook CDs, the publisher number is often found near the ISBN and/or UPC code and occasionally on the disc surface. Transcribe the number exactly as seen on the item, including letters, numbers, spaces and hyphens. An example is “RHCD 538” for a Random House audiobook (see below, right). If a publisher number cannot be found, please add “none” to the field.

Music CD

Audiobook CD

- Paw Prints bindings and Turtleback Books bindings have their own ISBNs merely because of the binding. When creating Quick Bibs, add both the special binding ISBN (located on the back cover) as well as the ISBN found within the book (located on the verso, i.e. back of the title page).

Please don't hesitate to contact Rex (x240, rhelwig@flls.org), Deb (x233, dgeier@flls.org), or Jenny (x236, jclark@flls.org) with questions about Quick Bibs!
