

2023 SUMMER READING PRESENTERS AND PERFORMERS

10:15 AM-11:00 AM

Sue Heavenrich—Society of Children’s Book Writers and Illustrators

Local author and educator Sue Heavenrich introduces us to this regional group of authors and illustrators and shares ways your library can partner with these creatives.

Claire Lovell—South Central Regional Library Council

Claire is showcasing passive programming ideas featuring SCRLC’s Travelling Exhibits. She’ll also discuss their Digitization Lab and possible grant opportunities for interested libraries. Join Claire afterwards for a brief tour of the Digitization Lab.

Emily Belle and Giulia DiMarino—Sciencenter

Science educator Emily and some animal friends are stopping by to show us some partnership programs the Sciencenter offers for libraries. Giulia will fill us in on all the perks of membership.

Laurie MacIntosh—Story Laurie

Veteran storyteller and musician Story Laurie is renowned for her amazing ability to engage kids of ALL ages with her deliciously creative and fun participatory programs.

Jack Wright—PowerHouse

Catch some Tiny House magic when Jack from the PowerHouse pulls up with powerful multi-generational programming ideas for your library.

Josselyn Richards-Daniels—Finger Lakes Toy Library

Let’s play! The Finger Lakes Toy Library exists to improve quality of life by increasing access to toys, supporting play, and encouraging a culture of reuse and sharing.
